

Amy, I've spent the last week combing through photos, stories, tweets, Facebook posts, Instagrams, and messages of support from World Autism Awareness Day, and there's one clear message:

You're the best.

You made this year's Light It Up Blue more amazing than ever before -- people in 157 countries around the world like you participated in Light It Up Blue. It's simply awe-inspiring. Thank you for being one of them!

And here are some of my favorite photos:

But we're not stopping now. April is Autism Awareness Month, and we have a goal of raising $150,000 online before it's over -- to continue to raise awareness, fund research and advocate for the needs of people with autism.

Donate \$25 or more to help hit our goal -- and keep up the momentum for this community.

Thanks, Amy. We are incredibly lucky to have supporters like you who shine a light on autism all year long!
